Sand Volleyball Guidelines and Rule Book

Expectations of Behavior:

All participants and spectators are subject to the Student Handbook and the Intramural Handbook. All participants and spectators are responsible for their conduct. Good sportsmanship like conduct is required.

Ejection:

In the event a participant/spectator acts unsportsmanlike, a judgement call will be made by an official depending on the severity of the offense. If the offense is minor, a warning will be given. This includes unintentional profanity. A second warning will result in an ejection. This includes unintentional profanity occurring a second time. An ejected participant/spectator must vacate the playing area immediately. Failure to do so will result in further disciplinary action from the Intramural Coordinator.

The following will result in an immediate ejection, referral to the Intramural Coordinator, and possible referral to the Vice President for Student Development.

- Profanity used in a degrading/insulting manner
- Language meant to harm an individual or group
- Disrespect to an official
- Threatening
- Unnecessary roughness
- Damage to Intramural equipment

Physical Violence:

Due to the severity of physical violence, local law enforcement will be called out in the event of physical altercation. All matters following the incident will be handled by the Office of Student Development.

Waiver of Injury Liability:

1. Emmanuel College and the Intramural program are not responsible for any injury that occurs during practice for or during actual game playing time. All intramural participants are wholly liable for the payment of their medical care that is a result of any injury incurred. Participants are encouraged to have private-personal medical insurance.
2. Participation in intramural activities is voluntary and all medical expenses incurred through participation are the sole responsibility of the participant.

3. Participants indicated their understanding of the Emmanuel College 'Expectations of Behavior' and the 'Waiver of Liability' when they initialed their Intramural Draft Application.

7. The ball must cross over the net fully within the boundary of the net if the ball is played out-of-bounds.

Serving

1. The initial serve of the first game is decided by volley. No blocks or spikes allowed during volley. No points are gained by volley, only the right for first serve.
2. The losing team of game 1 has first serve for game 2.
3. The initial serve of game 3 is determined by volley.
4. Each team member must serve in-turn, with the server continuing to serve until side-out is called.
5. All participating players must have a chance to serve.
6. The serve may not be blocked.
7. The server must wait until the scorekeeper calls the current score before serving. Failure results in turnover and points to opposite team.
8. The server must serve behind the back court line, and, within the side-court lines. Failure to do so results in turnover and point to opposite team.
9. If the ball hits the net and goes over on the serve, it is playable.
10. Front line receiving players must maintain foot contact with the ground during service. Failure to results in turnover and point to opposite team. If a front line player breaks foot contact by falling backwards, no penalty is given.

Ball Contact

1. The ball must be distinctly batted, not carried.
2. Palm slaps that are distinctly batted are legal and not considered a carry.
3. Contact with the ball that momentarily stops the motion of the ball is a carry.
4. Holding, catching, throwing, lifting, or pushing is considered a carry because of prolonged contact with the ball.
5. Rolling the ball on a person's body is considered a carry because of the steady contact with the ball.
6. Intentionally playing the ball twice in succession is a violation.
7. A secondary incidental contact with the ball is not a violation.
8. Contact with the ball while in midair on the opposite side of the net is illegal.
9. If the ball comes to a rest during simultaneous contact by opposing players, then a do over will occur.
10. All contact violations result in turnover and point to opposite team.

Court Violations

1. Incidental crossing over to opposite side of the court that does not interfere with the play of game is not a violation.
2. Crossing over onto opposite side that does interfere with the play of game results in a turnover.

Net Violations

1. If a player unintentionally makes contact with the net on his/her side while making a play, it is not a violation.
2. If the ball is hit with such force causing the net/net cables to hit a player, it is not a violation.
3. Intentionally pulling on the net while the game is being played is a violation.
4. If a player, whose team does not have possession of the ball makes contact with the net and it disrupts the play of the ball for the opposing team, a net violation will be called.
5. All net violations result in turnover and point to opposite team.

Blocks

1. A block does not count as a play on the ball.
2. Only the front line can block.
3. Blockers cannot make contact with the ball over the net. Meaning the blocker cannot have his/her hand or arm over the net and contacting the ball.

Spiking

1. Any player is permitted to spike the ball.
