

Position: Assistant/Associate Professor of Education (Elementary Ed) / School of Education

The School of Education of Emmanuel College invites applications for a full-time faculty member to teach in its Elementary Education program beginning with the Fall semester of 2021. Teaching responsibilities may include teaching undergraduate courses, supervising practicum students, and supervising student teachers. Other duties may include student advising and faculty committee work. In addition, the applicant should clearly desire to integrate the Christian faith with student learning.

Qualifications

A Ph.D. or an Ed.D. in early childhood education, elementary education, or a related education field from an accredited institution is preferred, and successful teaching experience in a P-5 environment is required. The applicant should be a committed Christian who identifies with and adheres to the mission of Emmanuel College. Emmanuel College is an equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Filing an application: Please forward the following (email preferred) directly to the contact person listed below:

- Cover Letter
- Curriculum vitae, with a minimum of 3 references
- Unofficial transcripts from all graduate schools attended
- Pastoral Letter of Recommendation: Needs to be from a current pastor and to include a verification of current church attendance and/or membership, a description of the applicant's activity in the local congregation, and an evaluation of the quality of the candidates' personal commitment to Christ.
- Personal Testimony: An explanation of the applicant's relationship with God through the Lord Jesus Christ, including a brief account of accepting Christ as personal savior, church membership, and current church involvements.

Applications will not be considered until all requested documents have been received.
